IMPORTANT DATES FROM STUDENT SERVICES

APRIL 29TH, 2020

All students → We know that you're doing your best to cope with the stresses of this new style of learning and everything going on in both our community and the world at large. Here are a couple links that may help:

- Virtual Calming Room: https://sites.google.com/morris.k12.mn.us/maes-school-counselor/virtual-calming-room?authuser&fbclid=IwAR2BbVAJ8M8ghGB8A7c7-qU4RtPDQ3rVkztqd5ls8bBXp4_095eRjW62TYQ

- Resources from Alberta Government (ranging from mental health to financial supports): https://www.alberta.ca/coronavirus-info-for-albertans.aspx (scroll down to section called Get Help)

- Resources from Alberta Health Services: https://www.albertahealthservices.ca/services/page11443.aspx

- Plus you can always email pamelamartin@gpcsd.ca and we can schedule a phone chat!

Graduating students: Scholarships are still happening!

- Our district's Education Foundation Scholarships are now available and due May 31! Visit the link and remember that each scholarship requires its own application form: https://www.gpcsd.ca/apps/pages/scholarships

- Check out this link for our Scholarship Booklet: http://sjstudentservices.weebly.com/searching-for-scholarships.html

All students → Online course selection has now ended and timetables will be ready by mid-June. Changes can be requested at that time. Teachers are working hard on making their homeroom lists! If you have any questions or concerns, you can always email pamelamartin@gpcsd.ca , but if it's a question about homerooms please email your teachers directly.
